

Networking Meeting in Argos, Greece

In September, Learning Seed had the pleasure and honor of organizing a networking day with representatives of VET schools from the wider area of Argos, Greece. The Youth Library of the Municipality of Argos Mycenae hosted us and offered us its wonderful space! During the networking meeting, we had the chance to discuss about the Erasmus projects in VET Schools, the problems and the opportunities that the VET students have.

